HUMAN RESOURCES

As at 30 June 2026, the Group employed 50 (31 December 2025: 55) employees. Total staff costs for the six months ended 30 June 2026 amounted to approximately $22,887,000, which included share-based payments of approximately $20,632,000 (six months ended 30 June 2025).

During the six months ended 30 June 2026, the Group continued to implement its remuneration policies, bonus and share option schemes for its employees. The Group's remuneration policies are reviewed regularly and are based on various factors, including: (i) qualifications and experience; (ii) position and seniority; (iii) performance of individual employees (which is assessed annually and is based on a set of objectives and key performance indicators); and (iv) performance of the Group, with reference to the Group's operating results and profitability. The Group's remuneration packages are generally reviewed annually by the Board's remuneration committee, which makes recommendations to the Board on the remuneration packages of individual executive Directors and senior management. No Director is involved in deciding his own remuneration. The Group's remuneration policies remained unchanged during the six months ended 30 June 2026. The Group also provides training programs for its employees, including induction training for new employees and continuing professional development for existing employees. As at the date of this interim report, the Group has not experienced any significant problems with its employees or any difficulty in recruiting suitable personnel, and the Group considers its relationship with its employees to be good during the six months ended 30 June 2026.

INTERIM DIVIDEND

The Board does not recommend the payment of any interim dividend for the six months ended 30 June 2026 (six months ended 30 June 2025: Nil).

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Board is committed to maintaining high standards of corporate governance practices and procedures to safeguard the interests of shareholders and enhance corporate value and accountability.

During the six months ended 30 June 2026, the Company has complied with the code provisions set out in the Corporate Governance Code (the "Code") contained in Appendix C2 to the Listing Rules, except for code provision C.2.1 as explained below.

Code provision C.2.1 stipulates that the roles of chairman and chief executive officer should be separated and should not be performed by the same individual. Mr. Li Zhiqiang is the chairman of the Board (the "Chairman") and also performs the duties of chief executive officer. The Board believes that vesting the roles of both chairman and chief executive officer in the same person provides strong and consistent leadership to the Group and allows for more effective and efficient overall strategic planning for the Group. The Board considers that the balance of power and authority is adequately ensured by the operations of the Board which comprises experienced and high caliber individuals who meet regularly to discuss issues affecting the operations of the Company. The Board also considers that this structure will not impair the balance of power and authority between the Board and the management of the Company and may facilitate the implementation and continuity of the Company's policies.
